

Campaign Nonviolence NC Week

September 14-22, 2019

CNV NC Week holds events in solidarity with the National Campaign Nonviolence Movement
A week of nonviolent actions for a just, peaceful, sustainable world

Thoughts on "Dismantling Today's Jim Crow"

Tuesday, September 17, 7:00pm

Guest Speakers: Melissa Florer-Bixler, Author/Pastor Raleigh Mennonite Church;
Sage Chioma – Poet / Counselor / Motivational Speaker / International Civil Rights Museum
Interpretive Staff and Tour Associate. Love offerings accepted for Campaign Nonviolence NC's 2019 series of speakers & events on anti-racism.

Location: Highland United Methodist Church Community, 1901 Ridge Rd, Raleigh, NC 27607

Note: Participants will have an opportunity to meet local grassroots activists working for justice in policing, public school advocacy for children of color, affordable housing, immigrant rights, and environmental justice.

Prayer Vigil for Nonviolence

Thursday, September 19, 7:00pm

Worship Leaders / Choirs: from Holy Name of Jesus Cathedral and CUCC

Location: CUCC - Community United Church of Christ, 814 Dixie Trail, Raleigh, NC

NC Peace Action's "Peacemaker Fundraising Dessert Social"

Friday, September 20, 6:30pm

Guest Speaker: Kathy Kelly, peace activist/ a founding member of Voices in the Wilderness/and co-coordinator of Voices for Creative Nonviolence. $25 donation suggested. No one will be turned away.

Location: Highland United Methodist Church Community, 1901 Ridge Rd, Raleigh, NC 27607

Help Build a Community Committed to Nonviolence Here in the Triangle

www.facebook.com/CampaignNC

Check for events as they are added